

Chair: Alex Oderkirk, AgraPoint

- 11:00 – 12:00 noon     Biosecurity Through a Vaccination Program
1. Vaccine handling and administration
2. Interpreting vaccine titres
Speaker: Stephen Halley, Intervet Schering Plough
- 12:00 – 1:00 pm        Lunch
On your own
- 1:00 – 1:30 pm         National Biosecurity Program Introduction
An overview of the National Biosecurity Program
Speaker: Dr. Keith Campbell, CFIA
- 1:30 – 2:00 pm         Outbreaks and Spread in Poultry
How they happen and spread; what are the risk levels; and how to stop spread
Speaker: Scott Gillingham, DVM ACPV, Canadian Regional Business Manager for Aviagen
- 2:00 – 2:40 pm         Increased Biosecurity
1. What is increased biosecurity and what are the differences between the heightened biosecurity levels?
2. On-farm increased biosecurity during a disease alert experience
Speakers: Dr. Robert Kerr, DVM, NSDA and Peter Swetnam, Wilmar Acres
- 2:40 – 3:20 pm         Understanding Disinfectants
How are they used? Understanding differences in disinfectants (phenols, etc.); overview of sanitation procedures on-farm
Speaker: Dr. Randall Bishop, DVM ACPV, Cornwallis Veterinarians Ltd.
- 3:20 – 3:30 pm         Coffee Break
- 3:30 – 4:00 pm         Employee Buy-In on Biosecurity Protocols
How to communicate your biosecurity needs to your staff
Speaker: Niki Petrie, AgraPoint
- 4:00 – 4:30 pm         Biosecurity through Pest Control
What does a program look like for rodent and fly control, what are people using? Information about bait stations and proper use
Speaker: Alex Oderkirk, AgraPoint